70' Viking Convertible

DEBUT

If you're a fan of Viking's 76 and 82 Convertibles, get ready to fall in love again. The four-stateroom, four-head 70 bears a strong family resemblance to those offshore yachts, particularly forward at the raked stem, where eight feet of freeboard makes for solid ride in big head seas. On the bridge is Viking's trademark center console helm. The builder also will introduce its entry-level 42 Convertible at the show. Bahia Mar, D-Dock. vikingyachts.com

60' Hatteras GT Convertible

DEBUT

Hardcore anglers will be chasing this battlewagon. The 60 GT is the first model in a new series of tournament-class convertibles from Hatteras. You can cruise this boat, but it's designed for fishing first. Serious anglers with a keen eye for Carolina styling will be impressed by the aggressive bow flare and long foredeck. Then there's the breathtaking performance: 40 knots at top end. hatterasyachts.com

60' Prestige by Jeanneau

DEBUT

The Prestige brand is relatively new in the U.S., but the new 60 Prestige could make it a household name among boat owners. The largest in a line of French-built cruisers starting at 38 feet, it boasts a proven Michael Peters hull powered by Volvo's IPS system, a long list of standard equipment and many interesting options – this builder understands that owners like to personalize a new boat. ## 58' Riviera Sport Yacht

DEBUT

Bring the outdoors inside. That philosophy was the driving force behind the design of Riviera's newest luxury cruiser, the 5800 SY. The interior of this four-cabin, three-head model is brightened by plenty of natural light, most notably in the master stateroom, with its dramatic fixed windows and opening ports, and in the saloon, with its sunroof and glass bulkhead aft. Riviera also will introduce the 5000 SY at the show. Bahia Mar, C-Dock. riviera.com.au

57' Ferretti

Put this yacht's interior on your "must-see" list. With the 570, the Italian builder has taken yacht décor to the next
